

Does your teenager or your family get support because of your teenager's additional support need? Are you wondering what happens when your teenager leaves school?

Yes, then Dundee Carers Centre invites you and your child to a conversation about self-directed support (SDS) and young people moving out of secondary education in Dundee. SDS is the way support (often called social care) from Dundee City Council has been organised and delivered sometimes by other organisations since April, 2014.

Chat with families, council staff and providers about the help you and your teenager would like to see available to them.

Heard self-directed support makes the person an employer? It's a myth. Hear the facts.

Come along to:

Church Hall, Central Baptist Church, 9 Ward Road on Thursday, 2nd March, 9.30 for 9.45am start to 12.15pm.

Call or email Adele Donald on 01382 200422 or adele.donald@dundeecarerscentre.org.uk to book your place or to give information you want shared with the group if you can't come along on the day.
